

NAMI-Clark County is delighted to announce our speaker for our January 8 Education Meeting is Antonia Rathbun, LMHC, Counselor from The Children's Center, here in Vancouver.

We of the Clark County Affiliate of NAMI are seeking to better serve the young children consumers and families of our county. I have heard nothing but wonderful reports on the work of The Children's Center, and look forward to hearing Antonia Rathbun speak on the Center's work and mission. I hope you who receive this email will be at our education meeting, and bring others with you. Spread the word, especially to young parents.

The meeting begins at 7:00 pm, on Tuesday night, January 8, and will be at the NAMI Office, located in the Wellness Project, at the southwest corner of 39th and Main Streets. Please call the NAMI-Clark County Office at 695-2823, with questions.

Sincerely

Don Greenwood

NAMI-Clark County

From the website of www.thechildrenscenter.org

CHILDREN'S CENTER is dedicated to serving the community by providing quality mental health services to children and families, especially the disenfranchised. The agency operates in a cost-effective and highly productive manner, providing individualized and timely service to its consumers.

We are committed to serving all children in need within our resources.

This policy reflects CHILDREN'S CENTER's commitment to ensure accessible, affordable and barrier-free services to children in need of professional mental health treatment.

CHILDREN'S CENTER is an agency where everyone is valued and treated with dignity and respect and individual differences are accepted. The agency provides a welcoming atmosphere conducive to job satisfaction where employees are supported through quality supervision and training. Management is accessible and responsive to employees and their concerns.