

Always be a good leader!

How do you lead your NAMI on Campus club to success?

HAVE A PLAN!

Come up with ways to keep club members motivated. Commit to making your club a positive addition to your campus community.

Some tips on being a great leader for your club!

Make students
want to be a part of a fun,
educational club
that makes a difference on your campus!

- ♦ Know Your Leadership Style: Assess your strengths and weaknesses as a leader. This will allow you to succeed with the skills that you have and collaborate with others in their areas of strength.
- ♦ Be A Role Model: Members of your club will look up to you as a leader when you put your best foot forward, are fair, encourage active member involvement, & run effective meetings.
- ♦ Be Passionate: Members will see your passion and will want to be a part of the action.
- ♦ Encourage Creativity: Ask others for their ideas to make your club great. Keep things new & increase involvement in the activity of the members.
- ♦ Give Recognition: Giving club members recognition will motivate them & allow them to feel appreciated.

Have A Positive Attitude:

Always being upbeat and optimistic will create inspiration for club members.
