Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission: Through support, education, advocacy, and research, NAMI serves the nation and our communities by empowering consumers and families to confront the profound injustices brought by serious mental illness.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [X] No If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [X] Yes [] No If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

See Schedule O for Continuation(s)

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 4,876,288. including grants of $ 170,994.) (Revenue $ 789,946.) Program and Membership Support: NAMI program services provide awareness. NAMI's array of support and public education efforts are focused on educating America about mental illness, offering resources to those in need and insisting that mental illness become a top national priority. Mental Illness Awareness Week, National Minority Mental Health Month and NAMIWalks - the number one mental health awareness and fund-raising program in America - engage individuals in communities across the country. We continue to expand relationships and respond to requests with key leaders in all media outlets through which NAMI messages and priorities are driven. NAMI StigmaBusters' campaign advocates unite to fight inaccurate and harmful representations of mental illness in the media and public arena. NAMI is the authoritative

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,918,726. including grants of $ 319,893.) (Revenue $ 402,630.) Education, Training and Peer Support Programs: NAMI offers an array of peer education and training programs and services for consumers, family members, providers, and the general public. NAMI's education and support programs provide relevant information, valuable insight, and the opportunity to engage in support networks. These programs draw on the lived experience of mental health consumers and family members who have learned to live well with their illnesses and have been extensively trained to help others, as well as the expertise of mental health professionals and educators.

Family-to-Family is a free, 12-week course for families, partners and friends of individuals with serious mental illness taught by more than

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,740,145. including grants of $ 3,000.) (Revenue $ 598,061.) Policy/Advocacy: NAMI is recognized as the preeminent voice on Capitol Hill and in state houses across the country for the millions of Americans living with serious mental illness. NAMI advocates have fought for policy changes that raise the bar on mental illness care and promote treatment and research on par with other illnesses. NAMI's advocacy provides a unique voice for people who live with mental illness and their families in state and federal public and private-sector policies that facilitate research, end discrimination, reduce barriers to successful life in the community and promote timely, comprehensive and effective mental health services and supports. NAMI National and NAMI grassroots leaders work steadily to influence critical national policy debates as they unfold. The NAMI Policy Team

Form 990, Part III, Line 3, Changes in Program Services:

NAMI conducts a national assessment of public mental health services every two-three years; no report was undertaken in this report year.

Grading the States 2009 was a national report on the public mental health care system including state-by-state narratives and grades from NAMI. This was NAMI's second report, which listed states that had improved their grades, fallen, or remained stagnant. The report came at a time when state budget cuts threaten mental health services nationwide and health care reform is on the national agenda.

source of information on mental illness for Americans and serves to drive a positive transformation of personal and public culture with print, radio and television impressions each year that carry messages of treatment and recovery; NAMI's Web site which receives over 7 million unique visitors annually and hosts 165 discussion groups; three national magazines, including one in Spanish and 35 specialty e-newsletters every quarter; NAMI FaithNet and Sharing Hope provide specific outreach to faith communities while an online Veterans Resource Center seeks to address the growing needs of veterans.

NAMIWalks engages more than 100,000 participants who walk in 45 states to raise funds and change minds...one step at a time. NAMI's Information HelpLine responds to 55,000 requests annually. NAMI develops and distributes 200,000 brochures each year nationwide. For NAMI state organizations and local affiliates, the National office also serves as a clearinghouse and coordinator of state and local 3,500 trained NAMI family members and caregivers of individuals living with mental illness. The course dwells on the emotional responses families have to the trauma of mental illness; many family members describe their experience in the program as life-changing.

NAMI Family Support Group Program is a free, monthly meeting of caregivers of individuals with a mental illness where family members can talk frankly about their challenges and help one another through their learned wisdom. These meetings are facilitated by trained NAMI members in affiliates across the country, and participants are encouraged to share actively in the work of the group.

NAMI Basics is a free, six-week, peer-directed education program developed specifically for parents and other family caregivers of children and adolescents who have either been diagnosed with a serious mental illness/serious emotional disturbance or who are experiencing symptoms but have not yet been diagnosed.

Peer-to-Peer is a free, 10-week, peer-led, recovery education course open to any person with a serious mental illness. Peer-to-Peer emphasizes recovery from mental illness as a feasible, supportable goal and challenges the stigma often wrongly associated with mental illness.

NAMI Connection is a free, weekly, 90-minute recovery support group for people living with mental illness where people learn from one another's experiences, share coping strategies and offer mutual encouragement and understanding. The groups provide an ongoing opportunity to discuss the challenges of living with mental illness and the techniques for maintaining wellness. All groups are facilitated by peers living in recovery.

In Our Own Voice is a unique public education presentation that offers insight into the hope and recovery possible for people living with mental illness. Trained individuals living with mental illness lead a brief, yet comprehensive and interactive, presentation about mental illness.

The NAMI Provider Education Program offers 30 hours of in-service training to line staff at public mental health agencies, taught by a trained five member team of family members, individuals living with mental illness and a mental health provider who is either a family member or individual living with mental illness

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments provides advocacy and resources for the NAMI grassroots on a wide range of federal and state policy and legal issues impacting people living with serious mental illnesses and their families. Child and Adolescent Action Center works with families who have children and adolescents experiencing mental illnesses. The Multicultural Action Center works to bring education on mental illness and support to diverse and underserved communities.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6: NAMI is a member organization. NAMI membership takes three forms: (1) individual members, who belong to local affiliates and whose enrollment determines their respective affiliate's voting power, (2) affiliates, the local NAMI presence and major voting unit within the organization, and (3) state organizations, which each have a vote and serve to support and coordinate the affiliates within their respective states. The affiliates and state organizations vote to elect the NAMI national board of directors and to amend the NAMI bylaws.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a: The annual meeting of the members of NAMI shall be held in the summer unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors, on such dates and at such place as the Board of Directors shall designate. Voting members representing 20% of the voting power of the membership shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the members. Voting members shall designate delegates to vote at the annual meeting. Voting members may be represented by written proxy. The delegates shall act by majority vote at any meeting of the voting members at which a quorum is present, except as may be specifically provided to the contrary elsewhere in the Bylaws.

Voting may be conducted by absentee ballot, or onsite. All affiliates and state organizations in good standing are eligible to vote. Those delegates whose affiliate or state organization is in good standing but who did not meet the credentialing deadlines may seek to vote on site. Every effort will be made to make this possible, assuming verification of the individual's role and identity can be confirmed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The entire board receives a copy of the return and meets to review, discuss and approve the return for filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Any employee of NAMI who believes they may have a conflict of interest must indicate those conflicts in writing and send them to the Executive Director's confidential attention for resolution. The NAMI board monitors potential conflicts of interest by requiring an annual disclosure statement from each member which must be reviewed and updated quarterly, based on updated vendor and donor information, prior to each board meeting. Board members discuss their disclosures annually and determine what recusal or other action may be appropriate and under what circumstances. This process is codified in the board's operating policies and procedures manual.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The salary for the Executive Director is determined and approved by the Board of Directors. Salary decisions for all employees are made using comparability data for similar positions in comparable organizations.
